INTELLIGENCE INFORMATION:

Things have been rather quiet on the Intelligence front, sort of like the "calm before the storm." Now things are beginning to fall into place with this latest information from the Lone Star State.

A reliable informant, who was in the military for many years and is now a law enforcement official in Texas has reported seeing in S.E. Texas, groups of men, as many as 40 or 50, moving along rural roads in military formation. They are dressed in civilian clothing and are carrying assorted sacks, small suitcases and overnight bags. No weapons were in evidence. They were all of military age, seemed to be in top physical condition and appeared to be Mexican aliens. As informant's official car appeared, these groups would break up in a disciplined, military manner and scatter into the underbrush and disappear into the nearby hills. Several incidents such as this were noted in the period February 25, March 3. They were all within walking distance of a large military base, where a large amount of construction is now underway, with jobs available in the manual labor force.

Since the first of the year, there has been a Statewide large scale theft of explosives, up to 2,000 pounds in one instance. Supplies taken have been dynamite, primer cord, sacks of ammonia nitrate, detonators and explosive gel.

During this same period, the State Police building in Oklahoma was burglarized and ALL SWAT equipment was taken - the entire armory was cleaned out. The National Guard Armory in the Dallas-Fort Worth area was also reported to have been hit, although this has not been confirmed.

In December 1983, a remote radio site in Texas was hit and ALL equipment was looted, including equipment which can be rigged to jam police frequencies and send dis-information to police units.

Since the first of the year, there has been a rapid upswing of all types of crime in Texas, including the drug traffic; also many unexplainable fires.

INTELLIGENCE INFORMATION - 2

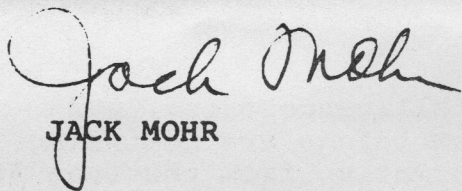

Further information regarding thousands of Shiite Moslems (the Khomeini type) who have entered this country, cannot be disseminated at the present time in order to protect the source of our intelligence.

Could it be that the underground elements are preparing for the final showdown?

NOW IS THE TIME TO PREPARE! It will be too late when the "Balloon goes up!"
