THIS INTELLIGENCE INFORMATION HAS JUST COME IN FROM ONE OF OUR TRUSTED CEDS COMMANDERS IN THE LOS ANGELES, CA AREA:

From a Security guard on the Southern Pacific Railroad. There has been much trouble in the past month (November) from illegals who are attempting to ride freight trains in the El Centro, Holtville, Altodones and San Luis Area. Last week (Nov. 20-26) Railroad police captured four men on one train, three were Mexicans and the other a Cuban. Each man was armed with a HK-94, fully automatic .308 rifle, with 500 rds of ammunition. These men appeared to be highly trained professionals. They had railroad and other maps in their possession and knew the train schedules and track layout for this area, also schedules for Border Patrols, which are now working on a 9-5 schedule.

ITEM #2 — A Security Guard from a large shopping center was approached by a woman with a foreign accent last week, who told him that an Atomic device was scheduled to go off in an abandoned New York City subway on December 18th at 2 p.m. That another conventional bomb would be exploded Dec. 11th in Manhattan. (This information has been forwarded to the F.B.I.)

This information is interesting since it ties in with a prophecy made by a woman named VERONICA, who is a member of an off-beat religious group in the Los Angeles Area. She stated on March 26, 1983, that she had been given a vision of an atomic device being exploded in an abandoned New York subway tunnel this winter; that it had been brought in by a Soviet submarine and that it was constantly moved in the subway to avoid detection. She said it would be fired near the Jones' Beach area. She went on to say that her vision stated there would be an invasion of the United States this winter, by Soviet forces, utilizing Chinese troops and that there would be a heavy outbreak of terror this winter, as a forerunner for this invasion.

Discounting the vision part, this has been part of the scenario we have envisioned for some time. It could be that the explosion of a bomb (conventional or atomic) in one of our large cities, would be the signal for the uprising in the cities which we have foreseen. Now, MORE THAN EVER, IS A TIME FOR CONCERNED PATRIOTIC

CHRISTIANS TO BE ON THE ALERT! WHAT HAVE YOU DONE FOR THE PROTECTION OF YOUR FAMILY?

Although the future looks dark, with little sign of immediate relief, it is not hopeless. In Luke 21:28, our Lord tells us: "When these things begin to come to pass, (the things which are causing men's hearts to fail them for fear) then look up, and lift up your heads; for your redemption draweth nigh." For the Christian, there should be no fear! Anxiety, yes! Concern, of course! But not fear!

I have just returned from a very important meeting in Canada. It was the first International Conference of the Crown Commonwealth League of Rights, an organization very similar to our own Christian Patriot's Defense League. It met in Calgary, Alberta, Canada on October 28-30. About 450 people were in attendance from Australia, New Zealand, South Africa, Rhodesia, Kenya, Britain, Ireland, Canada and the United States, with three observers from the Anti-Communist League of Mexico.

We were under constant harassment by the Jewish Defense League and the Anti-Defamation League of the Jewish B'nai B'rith, which a few days before had disrupted a League meeting in Toronto, by tossing stink bombs and upsetting literature tables. They put a lot of pressure on the Marbough Inn, to cancel our meeting, but we received nothing but the most courteous treatment from Inn personnel. Superior security prevented Jewish interference with the Calgary meeting.

The "keynote speaker" was Ron Gostick, head of the Canadian League of Rights. Other speakers were, Eric Butler, head of the Australian League of Rights; Jermy Lee, my roommate, formerly with British Security Forces in Kenya during the Mau Mau uprising, a brilliant speaker and devoted Christian; Ivor Benson, internationally known correspondent and frequent columnist for The Spotlight. Mr. Benson is from South Africa and served on the Cabinet of Ian Smith of Rhodesia, and myself. If you are interested in my speech, THE BRAINWASHING OF CHRISTENDOM, it can be obtained from me for 50¢ each, or $40.00 per 100, postpaid. Cassette tapes $5.00 each.

It was interesting to me, to note that the problems which are destroying all our Christian nations are the same and they are coming from the same source, of International Judaism. It is hoped that similar Conferences may be held in the United States during 1984.

We were treated with the utmost courtesy and consideration by our Canadian hosts and I was thrilled to find that about 90% of those in attendance were Identity Christians. It was a meeting which "recharged my sadly depleted spiritual battery."

PART ONE — ISRAEL IDENTITY.

In Dr. J. Franklin Snook's book, TO HEAL THE NATION, published in 1977, he says: "To understand thoroughly the development of our nation, we should consider the promises made to Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob, and the nation of Israel. God promised Abraham that his descendants, through Isaac, should become MANY NATIONS, who would be a blessing to all the earth." (We know that part of this promise, in fact the greatest part, revolves around the Messiah, Jesus Christ, who was to come one day as King of King and Lord of Lords, and set up a perfect government of peace and prosperity on this earth. — Editor.)

"Immediately in the minds of those of you who have been "brainwashed" in most churches, this thought will occur to you. "This passage refers to the Jews." But it does not, and cannot, since there were no people on earth at this time known as Jews and there were none for hundreds of years afterwards. The first reference to the word "Jew" in your King James Version, will occur in 2 Kings 16:6, about 1200 years after the time of Abraham. Even this is a mis-translation, since the word "Jew" was unknown in the English language until 1775 and the original King James Version was first printed in 1611. In this original edition, the word "Jew" was rightly translated as IOUDEAN," which simply means "Judean"; it had no religious, political, or religious significance. Certainly the modern "Jew" does not meet the criteria of these national blessings, no matter what your pastor may say. The Jews have never become a "vast multitude;" they have never been "many nations," and outside of a few unusual individuals, collectively they have been a "curse" to every nation in which they have lived.

God's promises, for the most part, were for the "latter days," which fall between Christ's first and second coming. These promises clearly state that "Israel," not the "Jews," (and it is not intellectually honest to say these words mean one and the same thing) were to become "many nations," and would finally find peace and rest, not in Old Palestine, as most of us were taught, but in a New Land promised in 2 Samuel 7:10.

In this interesting passage, we find King David, at the height of his power and glory, standing in his palace in Jerusalem, listening to this prediction coming from God, through the mouth of His prophet: "I will appoint a place for my people Israel, (remember now that David was in Palestine when this promise was made) and will plant them, that they may dwell in a place of their own (your pastors have told you this was Canaan land - right?), and move no more; neither shall the children of wickedness (the Edomite Jew) afflict them any more, as beforetime."

Isaiah 24:15 further pinpoints this new location when it says: "Wherefore glorify ye the Lord in the fires (valleys), even the name of the Lord God of Israel in the ISLES OF THE SEA." (Emphasis added.) The English word "appoint" which is used here, comes from the Hebrew word SIYM, which means "to bring; to give; to make; to take."

When Israel and Judah (which we believe refers to the Germanic people) are finally joined together, as predicted in Ezekiel 37:16-22, they will become the richest, most powerful nation the world has ever seen. There is no nation other than the United States, which has even come close to fulfilling this prophesy. Here we find peoples of ALL the tribes of Israel, with a preponderance, over 65-million, of Germanic (Judah) origin.

When you take into consideration the fact that America has been the Number One nation in the spreading of the Gospel; Number One in printing of Christian literature; Number One in succoring the oppressed and helping the needs, then you can see, if you will, how God's Servant Nation and we as individuals, are bound to keep God's Law.

When the Constitution of the United States was drafted by our Founding Fathers, they came close to meeting God's requirements; in many respects, our Constitution parallels the perfect system of government ordained by Almighty God. Because we followed these for the most part, for many years, we grew and prospered as no people had ever done before us. But since ours has been a history of mixed obedience and mixed disobedience, ours has also been an experience of mixed blessings and cursings.

Many years ago, the renowned French historian, Alexis de Tocqueville visited America. He wrote concerning this visit: "America is great, because she is good; when she ceases to be good, she will cease to be great." Many of you who read these words, will be able to vouch for the truth of this statement. For the strength of America, both at home and abroad, has gone down hill in recent years, in a direct ratio to our unwillingness to follow God's commands.

While we have had over 200 years to correct our mistakes, we have instead, followed in the footsteps of our ancient Israel forbearers and have turned our backs on our God. Therefore, the whip of the Almighty is falling on America. How far will God have to proceed with this disciplining action, before our people wake up?

Divine Law is the practical application of God's will done on earth as it is in heaven (Matthew 6:10). But as we have been disciplined, our lawmakers, instead of looking to God and His Word for their answers, have worked from false premises which have increased our troubles. This is not hard to understand if you carefully study the twelfth chapter of the book of Hebrews in the New Testament. Verse six clearly points out that "Whom the Lord loveth, he chasteneth..." (Just as a good father will discipline his wayward child, so God disciplines His "special people." This is one of the surest signs of our Israel relationship, since when we disobey, we are punished more severely than any other people.) The forces of "anti-Christ" are not arrayed today against the "third World nations," but against the nations of Christendom, those who make up the Israel people.

So when our law-makers, seeking a remedy, go towards Communist-Socialism, they are going in direct contradiction to God's Law and all hell breaks loose; national sin increases, since we know that "sin is the transgression of the law," (1 John 3:4). Then we go to Deuteronomy 28 and see where these transgressions have brought us debt, poverty, disease, crime, social unrest, youth rebellion, military defeat and possibly in the final analysis, servitude. All of these things are a natural aftermath of disobedience and all are used as "disciplinary measures" to bring God's people back into a right relationship with Him. Again I ask, how long will it be before America learns her lesson?

Peddie, the eminent economist said that he had been told from his youth that Divine Law was not applicable to our modern civilization, but that after he had studied for twenty years, he realized that this was the only Law which would redeem America from the chaotic conditions into which she has fallen.

Blackstone, the English jurist, and one of the finest legal minds of modern times, said: "A command concerns primarily a single prescribed requirement; that is, it calls for either definite action or inaction on the part of those to whom the command is given; consequently, disobedience to any one of the Divine Commandments, throws the whole structure of national life out of harmony with universal law."

Most important documents begin with a "preamble." The Constitution of the United States begins: "We, the people of the United States." Here we find the people are both the principal and the base of authority for the document which follows.

A "Constitution," is defined as "the fundamental principles according to which a nation is governed..." According to this definition, all the laws of the United States should conform to the Constitution. We know this has not been the case for many years, as legislators have become TRAITORS to the Constitution and Judges and lawyers have disregarded it. This is the basis of much of our trouble.

When God Almighty formulated a National Constitution and gave it to His people, Israel (not the Jews), it was a model for them to live by, whereby they would become an example for the rest of the world and whereby they would bless the world, as was promised in Genesis 12:3. The instructions contained in this greatest of all documents were not new; they had been known to man since the time of Adam and are sometimes referred to as "Natural Law." They were set forth in a legal code, at Mt. Sinai.

The preamble to this Constitution is found in Exodus 19:4-6, in part it says: "Now, therefore, if you will obey My voice indeed, and keep My Covenant, then you shall be a peculiar people (not "queer" or "odd," but a "people set aside for a special purpose;" not the "dictators, the Jews want to become; but a blessing to all the earth), a treasure unto Me above ALL people: for the earth is Mine: and you shall be unto Me a kingdom of priests, and a holy nation." (Compare this with 1 Peter 2:9, 10).

God said in effect: "Since the earth belongs to me, I can make or break any people on earth, I have this right. But I choose to deliver My Israel people from slavery and make them free. So if you will obey Me; if you will put Me first in your life, then I will make you a free people, where even the lowliest of you can reach the heights of national office. If you obey Me, I will set you apart as a Holy Nation, and you will be above all others. Not as evil dictators, but in the moral excellence which will make others recognize you as great and will cause them to come to you for instruction.

Today we see aspirants from all walks of life who believe what God said and who strive for political office; yet most of them immediately forget, if they thought about it in the first place, about God's Law. Many who claim to be Christian, men like Senator Mark Hatfield of Oregon, and others, by their voting actions, show that they are on the side of God's enemies.

Ancient Israel became a Divine Monarchy. After a short campaign, in which God outlined His promises and the blessings which would come to them if they followed Him, the people voted unanimously to make God their leader. Listen to Exodus 19:8 - "ALL THE PEOPLE, answered together and said, ALL THAT THE LORD HATH SPOKEN, WILL WE DO." (Emphasis added.)

Once a Constitution is approved, ALL the people, including the leader and all members of the government, are subject to it. Over 100 years ago, U.S. Supreme Court Justice Story, was quoted as saying: "If the people frame a Constitution, then the rulers MUST OBEY IT. Neither ruler, nor functionary...has the right to cripple or destroy it, because according to their view, it is inconvenient or unwise." Today, the majority of America's leadership refuses to follow this advice. When this same thing happened in ancient Israel, it led to their downfall.

Modern Christians have the habit of disregarding the Laws and precepts of God, as laid down in the Old Testament and confirmed by Christ in the New. In Matthew 23:37-40, Jesus Christ said: "Thou shalt love the Lord thy God with all thy heart, and with all thy soul, and with all thy mind. This is the first and great commandment. (It covers the first four of the Ten Commandments.) And a second is like unto it. Thou shalt love thy neighbor as thyself..." (This covers the remaining six commandments). Christ did not come to destroy the Law, but to fulfill it, as He Himself stated in Matthew 5:17.

The Constitution God gave to our forefathers differs from our Constitution, in that it cannot be amended or altered in any way. In Deuteronomy 4:2, we are told of this Constitution: "You shall not add unto the word which I command you, neither shall ye diminish aught from it."

So no matter what your pastor may say to the contrary, if Jesus Christ is the same "yesterday, today and forever," (Hebrews 13:8), as you claim to believe, then His Law remains the same and cannot be repealed.

The only Law which was put away is the "law for righteousness," (Romans 10:4) which was the law "that was added because of transgression, (remembering now that "sin is the transgression of the law.") 'til the coming of the heir, to whom the promises were made," (Galatians 3:17-19). This law is the one which refers to animal sacrifices, which we know was done away with, when Christ made His "once-for-all" sacrifice for sin, on Mt. Calvary.

PART II — ISRAEL IDENTITY.

This month we are going to discuss a different aspect of Israel Identity. The following information has been taken from the IDENTITY Magazine, published monthly by the Association of the Covenant People, 1238A Seymour St., Vancouver, B.C. V6B 3N9, CANADA. It was written by Mr. Dick Vander Merwe.

A young Anglo-Saxon man, who despises and mocks the truth of our Israel Identity and heritage, recently ended a fierce attack on our teachings, of which I was the unfortunate, bored listener, with these words: "Look at Britain and the mess it is in. It is not even considered a world power by the Third World countries. As for the United States, it is a disaster!" He continued his monologue, spiced with evangelical cliches, along this line. When he finally ended his diatribe he said, with all the bravado he could muster: "And you still want to insist that we are Israel. What a laugh! Israel is to be ruling, prosperous, and all things which Britain and North America are not. What do you answer to that?"

Well, I had to admit quite humbly, that I had no answer for him...not that there were no answers, but simply because it would be a waste of time and effort to argue with a fool (Scripture qualifies him as a fool, as I will prove.)

If he was half as smart about the things of God, as he thought he was, he would have known that the very argument raised to disapprove our claims to being Israel, are in fact the very proofs thereof.

His problem, as to why he did not understand it, was that he, like many others, did not realize that God, the Author of Law and Order - Whom he was taught had abolished the Law through Grace - follows a predefined system or process based on His law, to attain His objectives with all His creation. God, bound by His immutability (not capable of change - ED.) will not deviate from this objective.

The Lord's objective with Israel, as clearly stated in Scripture, is that Israel will rule with Him in glory, majesty and righteousness and that she will be victorious and fruitful. However, in order to bring Israel to this exalted place, she must first undergo the full process.

How does this process function? Well, it really is quite simple. Jesus clearly defined it in John 12:24 - "...unless a grain of wheat falls into the earth and dies, it remains alone; but if it dies, it will bear much fruit." The Apostle Paul, in 1 Corinthians 15:36, supports this truth and adds that anyone who expects fruit to be produced in any other manner is a "fool."

Therefore, it makes sense that Israel must "die." Not as an obliteration - a fading off the stage of history, as has befallen many great dynasties and cultures of the past; but dying as in transformation and regeneration, much as the caterpillar dies to become transformed into a brilliant butterfly, or as seed dies in the ground, in order to become a "seed bearing plant."

The first thing which happens to a planted seed, is that it undergoes a "change of plane." Jesus said: "Unless a seed of wheat falls into the ground." The grain in order to FALL must first be brought down from a higher plane to the lower. This is an unarguable fact of natural law.

The world which is unnatural and opposed to this law, operates in reverse. When it wants to use a person, it lifts them up; it takes them from rags to riches; from obscurity to stardom...but we know this is not a position of permanence, because after the world has used and exploited them, it casts them aside. This is not so with God. When He decides to use a person or nation, He first brings them down from a high plane to a low plane. But when He raises them up to the fruitful and useful, it is permanent. Jesus and His ministry is a perfect example of this principle in action. He who was destined from before the beginning of Creation to serve the Father and His Creation, as Savior and Redeemer; then King of Kings and Lord of Lords, first had to leave His exalted position in glory and come down to earth to serve the creation of His own hands. In Philipians 2:7, 8, we read: "But made Himself (Christ) of no reputation and took upon Him the form of a servant, and was made in the likeness of men: and being found, in fashion as a man, He humbled Himself, and became obedient unto death, even the death of the cross." Then the result of this "humbling process" is explained in verse 9 - "Wherefore God also hath highly exalted Him, and given Him a name which is above every name: That at the name of Jesus, every knee should bow...And that every tongue should confess that Jesus Christ is Lord, to the glory of God the Father."

He, who was Life itself, had to give up life and glory; dying in the process, so that He would become the "first fruit from the grave." By this, He ensured eternal life and the full harvest which was to follow.

Some might argue. "But Christ is the exception - one cannot use Him as an example to establish a premise which deals with physical nations and a sinful people."

But let us look and see how God dealt with His people in the past. Take Joseph as an example (incidentally, he was the father of Ephraim and Manasseh, the very people we are talking about), he was destined by God to become a ruler and a fruitbearer. But before he could become fruitful and reign; before he could become the one whose branches would "run over the wall," (Genesis 49:22), he was thrown into a pit, by his own brothers (Genesis 38:24). He was accused of a crime he did not commit, and was thrown into a stinking Egyptian prison. This treatment was used to make him a ruler in Egypt. Before he could sit on the throne, he first was incarcerated in prison.

Can we expect any less from his descendants? If we are to be fruitbearers, or as Scripture declares, MUST be, then we must first be brought down low.

The present situation in Christendom proves this point, but when we have been humbled sufficiently, when we will become willing to listen to Him and do His will, then we will be raised up. This is as much a Law of God, as the Law of Gravity.

The bringing down of Great Britain and the United States is proof in itself that we are Israel. It is a proven fact of physics that you can only bring something down which was great, and vice versa. The only "great" people in world's history who meet the criteria for God's people and who have been brought down to the gutter, are Israel, both ancient and modern. The critics may scoff all they want and the Jews rant and rave about this, but it does not change the truth. With regards to other nations who now lie on the "garbage heap of History," if they were great in the sense that Babylon, Egypt, Assyria, Greece and Rome were, then there will be no recovery, but Israel will recover!

The State of the Israeli's claim to be Israel is disproved by the fact that since their inception, they have never enjoyed any of the benefits of greatness, such as peace, prosperity and financial independence. On the rare occasions when they show signs of greatness, it was always done with American weapons, finance and know how; therefore this greatness is artificial. How can the Israeli be brought down, when they have never been raised up? How can the power of the Israeli be broken, as Daniel declares of the "Holy People" in Daniel 12:7, when as a nation, they have never had this power? (Even their own leaders admit that without American aid, they would "go under" in six months - ED.)

Remember, this "falling down" of a nation is a humbling process which precedes the bearing of fruit. The only nation to whom this "fruitbearing" was promised, was Israel and in particular the families of Ephraim and Manasseh. When Jacob lay on his death bed, he blessed his sons and transferred the promises of "fruit bearing", which God first made to Abraham in Genesis 17:6, and which was later transferred to Joseph and his sons, (Genesis 49:36).

Whatever chance the true Jew had to share in this fruitful state was blown away by their great, great forbearers, as they rejected the Holy One of Israel, the Lord Jesus and said: "Crucify Him! Crucify Him! We will not have this man to rule over us!" Christ said to them in Matthew 21:43 - "The kingdom of God shall be taken from you, and given to a nation (not the church, as some teach, but a nation) bringing forth the fruits thereof." This nation was of course the fruitbearing nations of Ephraim and Manasseh, - Great Britain and the United States of America. They and the other Anglo-Saxon and related peoples, are the only nations in the world which have become "fruit bearers."

The change of plane also necessitates a change of view. It is hard to look anywhere but up, when you are "flat on your back." We as a nation, desperately need to turn our eyes back to God and this will not happen as long as we are living "high on the hog." Jeremiah 22:21 says: "I called unto thee in thy prosperity, but thou said, 'I will not hear.'" (This turning will not come about through peace treaties, nuclear disarmament, mighty military forces - although Israel needs to be armed - our salvation will come when we realize who we are and our proper relationship to God Almighty and then try and act as His "Servant People." - ED.)

If it is the part of "fruitbearing", to return from the thing which you have worked out for your escape, then this proves that we are Israel. It was British Commonwealth law, based on the Ten Commandments, which set up the standards for the American Constitution. It protected the innocent, rewarded the law abiding citizen and punished the law breaker. It was designed to inspire men and women to rise above the filth of the earth, to the light of God.

But when the Crown Commonwealth nations and their errant daughter, the United States of America, reached a zenith of unprecedented power and affluence; with the sun of righteousness hanging high and free; with our people ruling the waves and the "gates of our enemies", as had been predicted, we began to pass laws which were contrary to those of Almighty God and our "house", once so staunch and sure, began to come tumbling down about our heads.

Not only did we fall to the soil, we are being ground into it, to a level of corruption. Our Anglo-Saxon leaders willingly took part in this corruption and sold us under the yoke of Jewish-Communist slavery. Today, Ephraim and Manasseh are being betrayed not only by the aliens we have allowed in our midst, but by our own "flesh and blood."

We MUST and WILL be brought low by God, so that He can exalt us. Death is a process which takes time. A man and woman are physically born, only to eventually die. For some it takes seventy years or less. For others of strength, they may last past eighty. But for all "grain" it is the same rule; to be fruitful it MUST die! Until the grain is taken from the stalk which nourishes it and is put into the ground where it becomes corrupt and dies, it cannot bring forth fruit.

In order for Israel to produce God's system of righteousness, justice, peace and equity - the kingdom of God on earth, Jesus told us to pray for in Matthew 6:10, they must first be removed from the "mother plant" which has shaped their character. This has been the "Babylonian System."

Today "true Israel" is as much a part of this "beast system" as the Edomites who control it. Before we can become "God's kingdom," we must become separated from this unholy stalk; its politics, religion and financial system. The umbilical cord tying Israel to Babylon MUST be severed, if Israel is to survive! Until this happens, we are not FREE TO DIE! Isn't this a paradox? Freedom to die — yet the sooner we die, the sooner will the fruit of the kingdom appear.

The Lord promised that this day of fruitfulness would finally come. In Jeremiah 30:8, we read of it - "And it shall come about in the day, declared the Lord of Hosts, that I will break his yoke (Babylon's) from off your neck, and WILL TEAR OFF THEIR BONDS, AND STRANGERS SHALL NO LONGER MAKE YOU SLAVES." (Emphasis added.) (Think about this, when you see strangers like Henry Kissinger, exerting undue control over our government - ED.)

The people which do what Israel is supposed to do, are the one's who fulfill the prophecies concerning Israel. The Jews do not come close to fulfilling a single one of the more than 200 prophecies concerning Israel which are found in the Bible. But one day soon, when our people wake up; when they throw off the shackles of organized religion which has bound them to "Jewish fables," then they will rise up in newness of life to become the fruitful bough. Then will we "rule and reign" under the command of our Lord Jesus Christ. MARANATHA!

How important is Identity? Most important, particularly when it has been destroyed by loss of memory. Identity determines who your parents were, your heritage, the location of your home, your obligations to God and man, your responsibility, and yes, your inheritance. I have heard Christians make this foolish statement: "But I'm saved and bound for heaven, that is all that really counts." But they are like Esau, who sold his birthright for a plate of "red beans and rice," as we would say in the South.

When ten tribed Israel, the "prodigal son" of the parable, (Luke 15:11-32), lost his identity as the son of His Father and became one of the "gentilized" heathen, many of the above mentioned privileges and responsibilities were no longer his. When Israel was no longer known in a "far country," as a "son of God," but was looked on as a heathen; when he no longer recognized himself as a son of Abraham; but was known as a Saxon (Isaac's son), how could he serve his father when he did not know who he was?

The Parable says, "he came to himself," and returned homeward as a humble servant. He did not come back to rule, as the Jews say they intend to do. But though he did not know his Father, God knew him and met him. The repentant son, became a repentant sinner who was changed into a "son of God." He became a Christian. But he still did not know his true identity, or realize his heritage.

But when the ten-tribed Anglo-Saxon-Celtic House of Israel finally recognizes themselves as a son; when they claim their identity and heritage, when they have a full realization of their obligation and responsibility, then they will become a worthy son, whose identity has been hidden for generations.

Yes, Identity is important, for without it, most things are meaningless and unrecognizable to the one who has lost it. It deprives one of a full life and the home and fellowship which are rightfully his through birthright. Lets say you are a "born again Christian" (John 3:3) and one day a lawyer comes to you and says: "You are the heir to a vast fortune." Would you turn him down because you are saved and headed for heaven? Of course you wouldn't. In the same manner, it is "spitting in God's face," to turn your back on your inheritance. Don't be a fool, such as Esau was. (From IDENTITY, June 1983, Vancouver, B.C.)

The following, taken from Martha O. Andrews, book BASICS OF NATIONAL IDENTITY, is of extreme importance to all Identity believers. Believing in Identity, and being of the Identity people, is not conversion. Jacob was still "Jacob the supplanter" until he wrestled with the angel all night and became "Israel, the ruler with God." The Apostle Paul remained "Saul the destroyer," until he met Christ "face to face" on the Road to Damascus and became Paul the Apostle.

Conversion is a spiritual "about face." Many of our people have devoted their lives in defense of our Christian heritage, yet they have not struggled with factors in their own lives which hinder their receiving the blessing.

Believing we are lost Israel is not enough. We must have a personal encounter with the Lord, both individually and collectively, before we can come into the consummation of the promises of Christ-Himself. (I sometimes use this illustration. In ancient times, a king is deposed from his kingdom, but the day arrives, when he comes home with pomp and glory, to take over what is rightfully his. The citizens of that country, even those who had been born there, and required to come before the king, bow down to him and kiss his hand, as they pledge fealty (loyalty) to him and his cause. This is what is meant in Psalm 2:12, when it says: "Kiss the Son, lest he be angry, and ye perish from the way, when His wrath is kindled but a little..." This is what conversion is. It is a turning from our rebellious ways, and acceptance of Christ as our Lord and Master - ED)

The Road to Christian Conversion is set forth so plain in Romans, that it would take a very simple person not to understand it. It begins in Romans 3:10... "there is none righteous, no, not one." None of us are in a right relationship with God until we realize that "All have sinned and come short of the glory of God," (3:23). By God's righteous standard we can never reach His perfection except through His Son, Jesus the Christ.

Romans 5:12 - "Wherefore, as by one man (Adam) sin entered into the world, and death by sin; and so death passed upon all men, for that all have sinned." It was because of this "original sin," which many liberal theologians scoff at today, that we are all condemned to perish.

Romans 6:23 - "For the wages of sin is death, (remember now that "sin is the transgression of the law, 1 John 3:4) but the gift of God is eternal life, through Jesus Christ our Lord." Sins brings the death penalty, but through God's grace (unmerited favor), Jesus purchased our redemption with His blood sacrifice on Calvary.

Romans 5:8 - "But God commendeth His love towards us, in that, while we were yet sinners, Christ died for us." We must realize: "I am the sinner. The wages of my sin is DEATH. Christ died for me!"

Romans 10:9, 10 - "If thou shalt confess with thy mouth the Lord Jesus, and shalt believe in thine heart that God hath raised Him from the dead, thou shalt be saved. For with the heart man believeth unto righteousness; and with the mouth confession is made unto salvation." We MUST believe with our heart, (mere mental assent is not enough) that it was for our sins He died. When His blood is applied to our sins, then we become "new creatures in Christ." Then we can profess Him as a personal Savior, and when we do this, it clinches our salvation.

Romans 10:13 - "For WHOSOEVER shall call upon the name of the Lord shall be saved." He will turn no one away who comes to Him with a humble heart.

By the unmerited grace of God, Jesus Christ paid the penalty for our sins. The essential to this is faith-belief. It is only when we stop trusting in our own efforts to save ourselves and start trusting in His finished work at Calvary, that we can receive the "free gift" of eternal life. It is not a part of our Israel heritage; it does not come to us automatically because we happen to be fortunate enough to be of Israel. All Israel and non-Israel must come to God through this route, if they are to reap the rewards of eternal life.

SECTION III — THE JEWISH QUESTION

Only a fool, a grossly uninformed person, or one who deliberately closes his eyes to the truth, will fail to see the similarities between Judaism and Communism. When the Bolsheviks took over Russia in 1918, they did it with about 40,000 men, most of them Jews. This caused Rabbi Wise of New York City to braggingly state: "Some call it communism; I call it Judaism!"

Here are a few of the similarities, which we never hear mentioned from our pulpits:

1 - Both Judaism and Communism have a mania for social beliefs based on Oneness.

2 - Both aim at and favor internationalism.

3 - Both repudiate beliefs in "genetic" (relating to origin) worth and persist in an irrational faith that improving the environment will improve the species. They do not believe in the Christian "heart change," which we call "conversion," or that Moses called "circumcision of the heart," (Deuteronomy 30:6).

4 - Both speak loudly of social justice, while using it to further their own ends. (Notice Jewish involvement in all civil rights movements, such as the N.A.A.C.P. and then their lack of this justice when it comes to dealing with the Arabs, or even the Jewish minorities in Palestine.)

5 - In the Free World, both have bred pressure groups which are used to bring them into power. A good example of one used by both Jew and Communists is the Jew led American Civil Liberties Union.

6 - Both place their dogma above reason.

Is there any wonder that Jews often transfer their loyalties from the countries where they have been born and raised and give it to Communism? Look at the names of those who have bred riots in the United States, they are not the KKK, or the Posse, or even the neo-Nazi groups. But almost without fail, behind the Communist inspired riots in the big cities, behind the trouble in the colleges, you will find Jewish leadership. Look at the names of those who have been traitors to the United States in the past fifty years; those who have sold our military and technological secrets to the Soviet Union and you will find that they are 98% Jewish names. You may not like to face this truth, but I can't change it, its in the record for everyone to see.

One of the biggest lesson the Christian world has yet to learn, is that the Jew is now, and has always been a naturally deceitful individual, who is their bitterest enemy. Jesus knew this when He told their leaders in John 8:44 - "Ye are of your father the devil and the lusts of your father ye will do. He was a murderer from the beginning and abode not in truth because there is no truth in him. When he speaketh a lie he speaketh of his own: for he is a liar and the father of it." How could this be made any clearer? Yet you persist in calling them God's Chosen. A Jew will take an oath in a courtroom and knowingly violate it, because on the Day of Atonement, in his synagogue each year, he prays the KOL NIDRE prayer, which absolves him in the eyes of God, so he says, from keeping any oath he makes during the following year. He is born and raised to believe in his superiority to all others and that non-Jews are nothing but cattle, put on earth for the Jews use. He can seduce a non-Jewish woman with a clear conscience, for he is taught that she is "nothing more than a piece of meat."

Today, after this rather violent introduction, I want to discuss one particular aspect of the Jewish Problem and show you how the Jews have used and misused the Black people of America, setting them up to become "cannon fodder" in a racial war of extermination, which if successful would bring about the Jewish dream of world domination. If the Black people ever waken to the truth concerning the Jew, how they have preached equality and human rights, while being in the forefront of subverting them, we will see an uprising, which will make anything that happened in Germany seem like a Sunday School picnic by comparison. Many concerned Jews know this and it "scares hell out of them."

For years our history books have railed about the cancer of slavery. While little is said from the pulpits of the land, concerning Bible prophecy, which states that it will be the Israel people who set the "captives" free (Isaiah 61:13), our "brainwashed" preachers cannot see beyond the end of their noses, to realize that it was the Israel nations of the British commonwealth who set the slaves free in 1833, followed by the United States in 1865. The Jews have never been in the forefront of any effort to free mankind, while in fact, they have been the driving force behind slavery in the New World and made enormous fortunes over the misfortune of the Blacks from Africa.

We will go for the proof of these facts, to documents in Boston, the Library of Congress and the Carnegie Institute Library.

The story of slavery in America begins with Christopher Columbus voyage to the New World. He was not financed by Queen Isabella, as has been popularly believed, but by Luis de Santangelo, a Jew. He was accompanied on his voyage by five "maranos," (Jews who had supposedly been converted to Christianity, but who at heart were still Jews), one of these, Gabriel Sanchez, sold Columbus with the idea of capturing 500 Indians and selling them as slaves in Seville. This was done. However, Columbus received no benefit from this venture, but became the victim of a plot fostered by his Jewish doctor Bernal, who betrayed Columbus and had him put in prison, while the Jews reaped the benefit from this venture.

When the Jews were expelled from Spain in August 2, 1492 and from Portugal in 1479 (not because they were God's Chosen people, as Evangelist Van Impe says in his book, not because Satan hated them, but because of their immorality and unsavory business practices, which made them hated wherever they went), many of them emigrated to Holland, where they set up the Dutch West Indies Company, which was used to exploit the New World.

In 1654, the first Jew reached America. His name was Jacob Barsiman. He came from Holland and settled in New Amsterdam, now known as New York. He began to trade with the Indians and in the decade which followed, many of his fellow Jews settled in New York and Newport, Rhode Island.

They cheated the Indians through the use of cheap glass beads, textiles, earrings, cheap ornaments and second rate knives and axes, which they traded for valuable furs. When they found that the Indians had an inordinate love for "firewater," as it was called, they immediately began to build distilleries for the manufacture of cheap rum and whiskey. This was cut with water, so they could make a further profit. The story of how they debauched the Indians, and of the massacres which followed is well known. However, our pastors and historians are careful to keep the Jewish names out of the story.

Newport also became the center of the slave trade from West Africa. An authoritative report in the Boston Public Library indicates that in one year alone, 128 slave ships were unloaded in Charleston Harbor, and that 120 of these were Jewish owned.

During the years 1726-1774, The Jew Aaron Lopez controlled most of the slave trade. In 1749, the first Masonic Lodge was established on American soil, with 90% of its members being Jewish and in 1769, the second Masonic Lodge, called the King David, was established with 100% Jewish membership. Most of the slave traders belonged to this prestigious lodge.

Following the Revolutionary War, the Jews were accorded equal rights in America, in spite of the dire warnings of Benjamin Franklin, who said that if they were not kept out, they would destroy us in 200 years. But the Blacks, remained slaves, since many people at this time considered them as animals who had no rights.

The chief method used by the Jews in gathering slaves, was to ply native African chieftains with liquor and trinkets, until they were induced into selling their own people, even members of their family. This is not difficult to understand, when you realize that most of these Blacks came from a culture where cannibalism was the rule. When this source of slaves began to run dry, the powerful native chiefs began to war with the lesser tribes and the unfortunates who were captured were sold to the slavers. They were linked two by two and forced to march overland to the great slave Kraals on the Atlantic Coast. Many of them died during this trip and as many as nine out of ten, died on the five month voyage from Africa to North America. Blacks were often purchased on the African Coast for the equivalent of $20-$40 in trade goods and were re-sold in the Jewish markets of North America for as much as $2,000. This was the basis of the fortunes of many Jewish families still in the United States.

The slaves were packed into the holds of the slavers in a space about 39 inches high and were placed in a position similar to overlapping spoons. They were allowed on deck once a week and the rest of the time, their body functions were performed where they sat. When a slave died, his rotting body was often left in the hold until they were taken on deck. It was said that a slaver could be identified many miles downwind, by their terrible stench.

While slavers were not allowed in the Northern Colonies after the Revolutionary War, the Jews desperately sought loopholes in the law, so that they could extend their trade and thereby their profits. The names of the principles who fought to eliminate these laws against slavery were — Sandiford, Lay, Woolman, Solomon, Benezet — all Jews. From 1661 - 1774, it is estimated that 11-million Blacks were sold in the slave markets of America, while another 100-million died, either in Africa or on the way to the New World. Why is it that the Jews, or the Black leaders for that matter, never tell their people about this "holocaust?" The Carnegie Institute Library has many documents showing the Jewish control of this nefarious trade.

Most of the ships captains were non-Jews, since there was an element of danger, not only from the elements on the voyage, but from slave mutinies and from the ever present British warships, who after 1833 were death against the slavers. Since the Jews have never been known to take unnecessary risks (see how they are now using American boys as a buffer in Lebanon), they let the stupid "goyim" lose their lives for a little gold.

Some of the ships owned by Jews, which were prominent in the slave trade were:

"Abigail" - Owned by Aaron Lopez, Moses Levy, and Jacob Franks.

"Crown" - Owned by Isaac Levy and Nathan Simpson.

"Nassau" - Owned by Moses Levy.

"Anne and Eliza" - Owned by Justice Basch and Job

Abrams.

- "Prudenty Betty" - Owned by Jacob Phoenix.
- "Hester" - Owned by Mordecai and David Gomez.
- "Elizabeth" - Owned by David and Mordecai Gomez.
- "Antigua" - Owned by William De Woolf.
- "Polly" - Owned by James De Woolf.
- "White Horse" - Owned by Jan de Sweevts.
- "Expedition" - Owned by John and Jacob Roosevelt.
- "Charlotte" - Owned by Moses and Sam Levy.
- "Caracoa" - Owned by Moses and Sam Levy.

These were probably the most notorious of all the slavers and all were Jewish owned.

Jews from Newport, Rhode Island who were engaged in both the slave trade and the distilling of rum (there were 21 distilleries in this area alone), were: Isaac Gomez, Hayman Levy, Jacob Malhado, Naphtholy Myers, David Hart, Joseph Jacobs, Moses Ben Frankc, Mosez Gomez, Isaac Dias, Benjamin Levy, David Jeshuvum, Jacob Pinto, Jacob Turk, Daniel Gomez, James Lucana, Jan de Sweevts, Felix de Souza, Simeon Potter, Isaac Elizer, Jacob Rod, Jacob Rodrihuez Rivera, Hayn Isaac Corregal, Abraham Touro, Moses Hay, Moses Lopez, Judah Touro, Abraham Mendez, and Abraham All.

While Jews have suffered terrible persecution in many areas (usually brought on by their own unsavory practices), so have other peoples. The difference is that the Jew "keeps score." He never forgets or lets you forget. A casual slaughter of 100,000 Christians is almost forgotten in a hundred years, but kill a few Jews and they will never let the world forget, nor will they ever cease to get their "pound of flesh" in return. (A good example the phony "holocaust" of World War II).

At the Central Conference of American Jewish Rabbis in 1956, the following confidential information was sent out to all Jews in America.

"Jews of America, these are our final instructions:"

- 1 - Continue to enlarge your control over radio, television, newspapers, movies and magazines.
- 2 - Educate our sons so they will crowd out the goyim from the practice of law, medicine, pharmacy and all retail trades.
- 3 - Make goyim schools and colleges, training camps for our Red Revolution.
- 4 - Bring ridicule on the Christian faith wherever possible, subvert their people and weaken their churches. (The stupid clergy have played right into their hand.)
- 5 - Demoralize their women and children.
- 6 - Corrupt their courts and bring them into contempt. (See what Jewish judges have done to our law system).
- 7 - Turn class against class; Black against White. (Go into any big city and see how successful they have been).
- 8 - Buy politicians and corrupt Local, State, and National governments. (The majority of our legislators in Washington are dual loyalists, with their first loyalty to the Israeli. If you refuse to believe this, then explain why they always vote Israeli first.)
- 9 - Get the Fascist, anti-Semites, one way or another. (The JDL has called for all-out war against anyone who tells the truth about the Jews - I am first on their list!)

10 - Use willing tools, such as Presidents Truman, Eisenhower, Stevenson and Chief Justice Warren to do our bidding. (Every President since that time, Republican and Democrat alike, have been stooges of the Zionists.)

11 - Plan unlimited immigration for our persecuted people. (There is now a bill before Congress which would allow an additional 150,000 Russian Jews to enter the United States. Nothing is ever said about the persecuted millions of Christians behind the Iron Curtain. They do not count, since they are only animals.)

12 - Continue our control of goyim money through the Federal Reserve System.

13 - Continue to put Jews in key positions in the government and Armed Forces. (Look at how many Jewish advisors are now in Washington.)

14 - We must destroy this Republic and replace it with a Democracy. (How many times do you hear a news commentator, or a preacher for that matter, who correctly refers to this country as a "Republic?")

15 - Continue our control over labor; agitate unrest, strikes and violence by any means. (Again look at who controls the labor unions and who heads up the strikes, 90% or more are Jews.)

"By these methods we shall plunge this country into destitution, demoralization, bankruptcy, and civil war, further lessening the number of our enemies.

"The Bolshevik Revolution made us masters of Russia. World War II made us the rulers of all Europe, with the exception of Spain and the next war will make us the MASTERS OF AMERICA AND THE WHOLE WORLD.

For the preservation of our race, you are warned to renounce, abjure, repudiate and deny any of this information if questioned by the goyim, even under oath, as you are directed by the TALMUD."

My Christian friend, if you discover the truth about Judaism and their plans for your destruction and refuse to warn your fellow Americans of this danger, you then become an accessory of the anti-Christ and will one day stand before Almighty God and answer for your crime against Him and your own race. This goes double for the preachers of America!!

The Jewish Fifth Column has infiltrated our churches, as they did during the 15th Century in Spain. While enthusiastically proclaiming themselves to be converted Jews, they are in reality often still faithful to Judaism. How many converted Jews do you know, who still refer to themselves as Jews? Most of them. They hate our Christ, they hate our churches, and they have declared open war against us for our complete destruction. We have the right from God, to defend ourselves. WAKE UP, BEFORE IT IS TOO LATE! THIS IS A CRY TO ARMS!!!

* * * * *

The Jews are liars, since they are of "their father the devil," according to our Lord's own words in John 8:44. Often they have laid aside their Jewish names and have taken Anglo-Saxon names as a means of deceiving the elect. You know this and so do I. The Apostle Paul said in Romans 13:11, 12 - "...Knowing the time, it is high time to awake out of sleep: for now is our salvation nearer than when we believed. The night is far spent, the day is at hand; let us therefore cast off the works of darkness, and let us put on the armour of light." DON'T BE DECEIVED BY JEWISH MYTHS, OR THE PROSTITUTES IN OUR CHURCHES WHO REPEAT THEM!!!

* * * * *

The following are excerpts from an article WHAT IS JUDAISM? written by Istvan Bakony and translated from the original Hungarian:

In the past, many Jews, to avoid exposure and exile, have pretended to convert to other religions, while actually maintaining their own religious beliefs and practices in secret. In some cases, these Jews lived this way for generations and became a subversive force in the countries in which they lived. This pattern continues today, especially where they want to strengthen their Fifth Column within the Christian world.

The religion of the Talmud is an aggressive and imperialist faith, full of hatred for other religions and with the consuming goal of enslaving all mankind. This religion is unique to the Jewish people and this is one reason why they are not interested in converting others to Judaism. The Jews teach that their religion resulted from God's promise to Abraham that they are the "chosen people," and that they are obligated to dominate the world. (Of course, we know from a study of Scripture that this is not true and that the people we now know as Jews have nothing to do with Abraham, as far as blood relation is concerned -EDITOR.) The Talmud teaches that other human beings are mere animals, not entitled to consideration as human beings except to become real or economic slaves to the Jews on the command of God.

The only time that a Jew sincerely seeks to convert a Christian or Moslem to Judaism is when that person is actually of Jewish blood, who has lost interest in Judaism. The conversion of such a person is intended to "recover lost blood." The Jewish religion is one to which Gentiles will never be admitted. They may become enrolled in a special religion made for them, which will have the outward appearance of Judaism, but which is actually different from the ancient organization of Judaism. This new religion was designed to turn the convert into a willing tool of the true Jewish conspiracy. Since the time of the Inquisition, it has been considered the utmost duty, both of public and secret Jews, to recover lost blood. They cannot rest until they have secretly initiated the renegade's children and brought them back into the fold of Judaism.

Besides being a people and nation spread throughout the world with its own religion, Judaism is also a sect or secret society, since most Jews consider the country in which they live as a colony of the political state of the Israeli. They are organized with secret ceremonies and rendering of oaths of secrecy and of absolute obedience to their leaders. All this is done as in secret societies. (The Freemasons are a weak imitation of this.) It is this complex society, which conspires as a people, religion and sect of the Israeli nation, which is identified as Judaism.

The family, which is the basis unit in Judaism, is patriarchal in most countries. The father is a kind of high priest in the family, where he leads in the family's religious activities, such as daily prayers and the very secret ceremonies of Judaism. These solemn rituals are for the purpose of impressing them with the idea that they are indeed the Chosen People. (It is interesting to note, that the Ashkenazi Jew, the Khazar Jew of Eastern Europe, who has no connection with Abraham, still clings to this Chosen People myth - ED.) Jews are taught from childhood in all their family activities, that it is their right and goal, to take over the world's riches. This aggressive and exclusive ideology makes them fanatical instruments in Jewish imperialism.

At the age of thirteen and after extensive preparation, those children who have proven their ability to keep secrets are very cautiously initiated into the families clandestine Judaism. Those who fail to pass the tests of discretion will only be initiated into secret Judaism when they prove their ability to keep such secrets. Those who cannot pass the test of secrecy and loyalty, or who are mentally unreliable, are left outside of this underground Judaism.

While most Jewish parents are exemplary in their conduct of family affairs and are good parents, these family virtues are directed to the perverted goals of Judaism. The political and religious bigotry imposed on Jewish children from infancy; their hatred of Christianity, is at the very heart of Judaism. Such a situation seems incomprehensible to those who are unaware of the dimensions of this problem and who do not realize that both secret and open Jews will use any means to destroy the unity of gentile, especially Christian families. (Could this be one reason Jews are in the forefront of education to destroy the family? - ED.)

In order to maintain the Jewish Conspiracy, it is in their interest to weaken the families of other peoples and to degrade their moralities and loyalty for each other. (You can understand this better, when you realize that the majority of educators who push for anti-Christian Sex Education in the schools are Jews; the innovators of new social education programs which downgrade the authority of parents, are Jews; those behind the degrading effects of rock and roll music, are Jews. (Send for my tape SIRENS OF DESTRUCTION, $5.00, postpaid, if you are interested in this aspect of the conspiracy.) In PROTOCOL VII, Jewish authored, we read: "We have fooled, bemused and corrupted the youth of the goyim by rearing them in principles and theories which are known to us to be false, although it is by us they have been inoculated." In the Jewish authored RULES FOR BRINGING ABOUT A REVOLUTION, 1918, they say: "Get them interested in sex and drugs, get them away from God and thereby destroy their ruggedness." In the Jewish-Communist textbook PSYCHOPOLITICS, printed in 1933, they say, page 27 - "By making readily available drugs of various kinds, by giving the teen-ager alcohol, by praising his wildness, by advertising to him or her practices as taught at the Sex pol (Sex Education) the psychopolitical operator can create the necessary attitude of chaos, idleness and worthlessness into which can then be cast the perfect solution of Communism." Isn't this exactly what has happened in America? America's top educators, Jewish led for the most part, have publicly admitted that they are more interested in "behaviorial control" of people, than in educating them. When the head of the American Society of Psychiatrists returned from a visit to the Soviet Union a few years ago, he admitted that the psychiatrists and psychologists of the Soviet Union, had perverted their professions and become instruments of the slave state. The same thing is now happening in the United States, under Jewish leadership. Sidney Harris, the very liberal news commentator recently wrote: "The biggest con artists in America are the behaviorial scientists on our university campuses, who are devising all these innovative programs for the schools. They honestly believe that only they, know what ideal behavior is." (Most of these are Jews, carrying out their "age old" conspiracy for the destruction of Christian values - check out the names for yourself - EDITOR).

Leaders of Judaism know that a nation with strong family ties will be better able to resist their advances. For this reason, they deliberately spread ideas aimed at dissolving the goyim's faith in marriage and the loyalty of children to their parents. (A good example, the Jewish leftist child psychologist, Paul Brandwein, in his Teacher's Handbook for first graders says: "Your first and foremost task is to destroy the erroneous ideas the child has learned at home and in his church. When this is done, you can begin to build the foundation for the international child of the future." - EDITOR.)

In every state and large city in America, Jews compose a secret community whose patriarchs are represented in the Kehillah or Supreme Council of that Jewish community. They are also organized into fraternities and similar organizations, such as the Freemason lodge, where their goal is to take control of this organization and all their important political and economic affairs. We hear the word "synagogue" used, but we must distinguish between the assembly-synagogue, the building where this Jewish assembly meets and the secret organization which is also known as a "synagogue." Judaism as a whole is referred to as the "world synagogue."

World-wide Judaism is divided into different "rites" which usually have a common cultural background. The Sephardic rite includes all Jews dispersed from Spain in the 15th century and from Portugal during the time of King Manuel, as well as the pseudo-Jewish Christians, that were expelled from Spain and Portugal during the reign of Phillip IV in the 17th century.

The Ashkenazi rite includes Jews of German ancestry (Khazars) who are also dispersed throughout the world. (None of these have any connection to the Old Testament Hebrews, but are of Turco-Mongolian stock. See Arthur Koestler's book THE THIRTEENTH TRIBE - EDITOR.)

The Bene-Israel rite includes the Jews who arrived in India about 18 centuries ago and infiltrated into many Indian castes and have since immigrated to many countries in Asia, Africa, Europe and North America. Many people believe these to be Hindu, when in fact, they are clandestine Jews. The present control of the Indian Congress and government is firmly held by such Jews. (END OF HUNGARIAN STATEMENT.)

One of the most powerful weapons of world Jewry has been its ability to confuse the thinking of the goyim, especially those of the Christian world. This can be seen in a news story which was wired from Chicago by the UPI on March 25, 1965. It was a report of remarks made by Dr. William D. Davis, professor at the liberal, left-wing Union Theological Seminary in New York. He was discussing Christianities growth and independence from Judaism at an Inter-Faith Conference of Theologians and teachers, sponsored by - guess who - the Anti-Defamation League, of the Jewish B'nai B'rith; the Roman Catholic Bellarmine School of Theology at Loyola University and the School of Divinity of the University of Chicago.

Dr. Davies was quoted as saying: "Jesus was, in a sense, a rabbi no less than a prophet. Both the method and very largely the substance and form of His ethical teachings was rabbinical. Nourished in the synagogue, Jesus gave His followers much of the ethics of the synagogue."

No more blasphemous or confused thinking could be possible. But this is the kind of confusion the A.D.L. and the American Jewish Committee are spreading in the Christian churches of America. Their main point is to convince Christians, that their religion is just another Jewish "sect" and that Christianity has "gone astray from the true religion of Judaism." One of their most powerful weapons is the overworked cliché of "Judeo-Christian" heritage, which is simply non-existent.

In the November 1963 issue of the A.D.L. Bulletin, there is a headline of a feature story, TO KNOW THEIR JEWISH HERITAGE, with a subheading which reads: A CATHOLIC TEACHES CATHOLICS THAT THEIR FAITH RESTS ON THE SOLID FOUNDATION OF ANCIENT JUDAISM. If this is true, then it rests on the flimsy foundation of sand Jesus spoke about. Our Lord, in Matthew 23:15 told the ancient Pharisees that they made their converts "two-fold more a child of hell than themselves," which doesn't sound like anything a Christian, Catholic or Protestant, would like to emulate.

This article goes on to say: "Catholics are becoming interested in their Jewish heritage." The writer did not say "our Jewish heritage" since he was very careful to conceal the fact that he was a Jew who had been converted (?) to Catholicism. He went on to say: "If a Catholic doesn't feel at home in a synagogue, then he doesn't understand the origin of his beliefs." This of course, is unadulterated "hog wash," for want of a stronger term which I could not use in this paper.

The A.D.L. went on to explain that the writer, Leon Paul, was writing a column to introduce Catholics to their Jewish roots and that it was being syndicated in diocesan papers from coast to coast.

Now lest you begin to snicker about the "gullible Catholics," let me say that the same thing is happening to Protestant, fundamental and evangelical Christians - they have for the most part, been taken in by the Jewish plot and have swallowed, quite eagerly, I might add, the Jewish bait, "hook, line and sinkers." You could quite literally refer to these as "religious suckers."

Today, the A.D.L. is supplying propaganda materials for the use in Christian churches. In another of their bulletins, Rabbi Arthur Gilbert boasts: "About 40,000 Catholic and Protestant churches have borrowed kits from our regional offices and more than a million pamphlets have been bought by Church Schools...The Vacation Bible Schools course for Juniors which will be conducted in over 100,000 Christian churches this summer, is based on an A.D.L. booklet."

In the name of common sense, Christians, can't you see how you are being taken in? Or is it that you just don't care what happens to you and your children? NONE IS SO BLIND, AS HE WHO REFUSES TO SEE!!! You are literally being "conned" by the most expert "mind control experts" in the world. Why "grin and bear it," when you can do something about it?

If you will take the time to do some honest research and study of Christian literature, written down through the ages, you will find that the term "Judeo-Christian" was never used before this century. It is a term which was coined a few years ago by Jewish interests and which has been spread and popularized by the "Jewish prostitutes" in our Seminaries and who stand behind the pulpits of our churches.

The result is a generation of "brainwashed" priests and pastors, who repeat "parrot like" this unholy refrain. I believe that many of them are afraid of the Jews and are desperately trying to show that they are completely free from the "heinous sin" of "anti-Semitism."

Christian leaders, both from the laity and the clergy, are injecting this poison into their teachings via the pulpit and written page, without ever bothering to check out the truth of Jewish assertions. Most of them have never learned to think for themselves, but are "led around by the nose," like some pet bull, by the teachings of their Bible scholars. They use the phrase "Judeo-Christian" repeatedly, because it has become popular to do so. One radio evangelist went so far as to brag that when he got saved, he "became a spiritual Jew". This could be so, since Jesus said: "Ye are of your father the devil," (John 8:44).

In all their declarations, showing their esteem for the Jews and their religion, I have never heard one of these "Jewish stooges," even hint that the Jews should stop hating Christ and Christians. While the Jews want anti-Jewish passages taken from the New Testament, I have never heard a Christian pastor ask the Jews to do the same with their Christ hating passages in the Talmud.

I can state without hesitation, that the Jewish community would never allow the Talmud to be changed, since this is the "life blood of their hatred for Christ and Christianity." While Christians "knock themselves out to accommodate Jews, they are laughing at our stupidity.

When you use the term "Judeo-Christian heritage," you are implying that present day Judaism and Christianity came from the same spiritual source and shares the same characteristics and traditions. This of course, is an outright lie, straight from the "pits of hell." More important, it is a brazen, sacrilegious affront to our Lord Jesus Christ, the founder of our faith.

Christianity has its roots in God - a God, who Jews, down through the ages, have denied, when they deny His Son. (1 John 2:22, 23.) There is absolutely no way that any person can worship the true God, without accepting His Son. A few months ago, when Dr. Bailey Smith, President of the Southern Baptist Convention stated: "God does not hear the prayer of a Jew," he was stating a fact of Scripture. (John 14:6) "No man cometh unto the Father, but by me." Yet the Christian community in America raised a terrible fuss over this truth: even those in Dr. Bailey's own church.

Christianity has its roots in the teachings of Jesus Christ, not some heathen Babylonian religion such as Judaic-Talmudism. It has no kinship whatsoever, with the religion of the Pharisees, which was taught in the synagogues of Christ's time, as it is in modern Jewish synagogues. This was the religious belief Jesus condemned over and over again during His lifetime, claiming: "But in vain do they worship Me, teaching for doctrines the commandments of men," (Matthew 15:9).

The A.D.L.'s Rabbi Arthur Gilbert, in his book A JEW IN CHRISTIAN AMERICA, states that Christianity was a "new religion." He says: "Paul did not seek converts for a sect within Judaism; instead he offered A NEW RELIGION based on belief in the crucified and resurrected Christ." That's where my faith lies! How about yours? If you are basing it on a Judeo-Christian heritage, then you are headed in the wrong direction!

If Christianity was a "new religion" as this Jewish authority claims, then how could it be based on a Jewish heritage? That Christians have a spiritual heritage with the Hebrews of the Old Testament is a proven reality, for the Christian belief stems from that concerning the same God Abraham worshiped. But Abraham was not a Jew, in spite of all the propaganda to the contrary. The Jews of Jesus' times, as those today, did not believe in the religion of Abraham or that of Moses. Jesus told their religious leaders (John 5:46): "For if ye believed Moses, ye would have believed me; for he wrote of me."

Judaism is not mentioned once in the entire Bible. It was and is a heathen religion which was founded in the musty halls of ancient Babylon, where a group of "power hungry" men began the plan for world conquest. It was at this time that they began to put their thoughts into a volume of books which 1,000 years later, in Alexandria, Egypt, became known as the BABYLONIAN TALMUD, the Bible of modern Jewry.

Modern Judaism retains many of the pagan practices of Old Babylon, such as the "sex mutilation" of baby boys, tattooing and other primitive rituals, most of which are contrary to the teachings of Moses. A careful study of the book PAGAN RITES OF JUDAISM, written by the Jew, Dr. Theodore Reik, noted author and past-president of the National Association of Psychoanalytic Psychology, will show you the truth of Judaism's pagan origin.

While it is true that modern Judaism retains some of the vestiges of the Old Testament Hebrew belief; these have gone through constant changes until they are not recognizable as such. Today, there are three main branches of Judaism - Orthodox, Conservative, and Reformed. All their beliefs are not only completely contrary to Christianity, but all of them encourage active opposition to and hatred for Christianity.

The Jewish Encyclopaedia admits that Judaism is not a religion based upon accepted creeds, like Christianity or Islam...it is not a religion as such, but a "religious legislator for the Jewish people." If Judaism, by their own definition, is not a religion, then how can it be the "religious heritage of Christians?"

The Encyclopaedia of Jewish Religion states: "The character of latter day Judaism was determined by...the emergence of a strong mystic trend (Called the KABBALAH or ZOHAR)." The ZOHAR is explained as: "a mixture of theosophic theology (belief in God based on mystical insight), mystical psychology, anthropology, myth, and poetry." "Mysticism" pertains to the occult, magic, astrology and other arts and practices which were condemned by the God of the ancient Hebrews.

How can any conscientious, rational Christian believe that Christianity came from such an anti-God source? When you proclaim your belief in "Judeo-Christianity," you are actually stating that you "believe in a Pharisee-Christian heritage."

The leading Jewish authorities proclaim that modern Judaism is "undiluted Pharaiseism." The late Rabbi Steven Wise said: "The return from Babylon and the adoption of the Babylonian Talmud, marks the end of Hebrewism and the beginning of Judaism."

Much of our Lord's time on this earth, was spent in condemnation of the hateful religion of the Pharisees. Yet many modern Christians have been seduced into following it in its Judeo-Christian guise.

PART IV — NATIONAL AND WORLD AFFAIRS

The great French writer Montaigne once wrote: "Nothing is so firmly believed as that which we least know." This is certainly true of the present military situation into which the American people have once more been "suckered" by Zionist intrigue. In an Editorial in his Newsletter, MIDDLE EAST PERSPECTIVE, October, 1983, Jewish writer Alfred Lilienthal says: "The United States and its Western allies have interjected themselves into a civil war, the proportions of which we are not able to determine, the dimensions with which we are unable to cope. As the U.S. sinks deeper into the quagmire of the conflict in Lebanon, we are reminded of our 1970 speech, inserted into the Congressional Record, in which we warned: "Stop turning the Middle East into another Vietnam."

"Marines and other navy personnel are being exposed to the gravest dangers even as American policy goals in Lebanon have been ill and loosely defined...Secretary of State George P. Schultz set forth before the Senate Foreign Relations and House Foreign Affairs Committees three U.S. goals: Withdrawal of all external forces from Lebanon; the establishment of a sovereign, independent Lebanon; and 'security for Israel's northern border so that the inhabitants of northern Israel can live in safety without fear of artillery and rocket attacks.' "

Lilienthal goes on to say that he was shocked when Schultz revived Israel's excuse for their June 1982 invasion of Lebanon, stating: "It has become well-established that for eleven months prior to the Israeli sweep into Lebanon there had been no PLO rocket attacks into Israeli and the sole motivation was the destruction of the PLO. Apparently under cover of the uproar over the Soviet Union's shooting down of the Korean (KAL) plane, Secretary Shultz deemed it appropriate to revive this red herring regarding Israel's borders, seemingly to serve as a justification for the Zionists new entrenchments in south Lebanon."

He then went on to state that it appears that the Zionists intend to stay permanently in southern Lebanon, in spite of all claims to the contrary and that they are erecting street signs in both Arabic and Hebrew, taking detailed census reports, and making formidable military installations on Lebanese territory. This would be in accord with Zionist objectives as set forth at the Versailles Peace Conference in 1919.

He then goes on to state that the only road to peace in the Middle East, is not a continued American military presence there, but the immediate implementation of a policy where the Palestinian people would have their inalienable (God-given) right of self-determination restored and where the Israeli would be secure from Arab attacks. This will never come about through present Israeli-American policy.

Lilienthal, in a reply to the Jew John Rothmann, the head of the Zionist movement in San Francisco and in defense of his 1949 Reader's Digest statement "Israeli's flag is not mine!" wrote: "I cannot see how one can be loyal at the same time to two sovereign states, to Israeli and the United States.

"...There is little validity in your claim that the Jews developed a common civilization in the land once called Palestine. As Arthur Kositler, supported by leading anthropologists, has pointed out, the overwhelming majority of those who today call themselves Jews, have no real ethnic ties to the land which the Israeli now occupy. The sad truth is that very few Jews, to revert to common parlance, (common mode of speech) have roots in the Holy Land.

"It is all imagery and myth-information to talk about a common history, language, literature, etc., and common land as you do. Zionist 'jargon' about 'going home' has little validity, for that home was never theirs. Many who are Christians today might have a better right to that home than Begin or yourself. They might indeed, be direct descendants of the original twelve tribes of Israel, which once inhabited the land of Canaan and were later converted to Christianity. You and Begin may only be able to trace your origins back to the Khazars."

He then goes on to blast the motives of the Jewish Defense Organizations in the United States, naming specifically the Anti-Defamation League, as "dishonoring your faith and the American way of life." He says: "Their goal is to suppress the right to dissent, for which men have long given their lives, here as elsewhere in the Free World, Zionism and its allies have made a veritable mockery of this and other human rights.

"I am sorry that you prate such cliché words as 'the free and independent State of Israeli and democracy in that land.' What kind of democracy is it whose basic legislation differentiates between Jews and non-Jews in granting rights and privileges? Day in day out, your Zionist compatriots crush any and all attempts at dissent from the prevailing approach of upholding Israeli, right or wrong, which has been imposed on successive administrations in Washington.

"How can you reconcile your label of Israeli as a free and independent state, with its ruthless suppression of its Arab populace within Israeli proper, and of the Palestinians in the occupied West Bank and Gaza? Christian and Muslim alike in Israeli, are third-rate citizens, and Arab Jews, who have come from Arab countries are treated as 'second rate' citizens. Israeli is a RACIST STATE...built on the non-democratic, racist principles of apartheid." (racial segregation.)

Lilienthal then goes on to state that when Rothmann boasts that "every president since Harry Truman has reaffirmed our national commitment to Israeli," it is because, "American Middle East policy is no partisan matter. It has been welded out of the politicians' crass quest for Jewish votes, which under our anachronistic (thinking which is chronologically out of place) Electoral College system, plays such a vital role in the choosing of our Chief Executive in our quadrennial elections.

"In their quest for office, Republican and Democratic candidates for the Presidency and for Congress alike, continue to cover-up the basic fact that 66% of the population of Palestine at the time of the creation of the Israeli State in 1947 was Arab. Yet to date, these Christian and Muslim Arabs have been denied their basic right of self-determination."

In Rothmann's letter, he sarcastically states concerning Lilienthal: "You have presented your case as well as it can be presented. Despite your best efforts, your position has failed to attract followers because it has been proven historically to be wrong. The people have spoken clearly...but the support for the Israeli is deep and wide. I am proud that Israeli's flag flies in the Middle East and I am proud that the Stars and Stripes stands four square behind the right of that flag to fly."

I like Lilienthal's reply, because it's an answer you fundamentalists should take a hard close look at. He replied: "My failure to attract followers stems from the fact that the tools of public opinion - moulding and government policy in the United States rests in powerful Zionist hands, and all opposition is ruthlessly suppressed. The Zionist movement has a most invaluable ally in the spectre of Adolf Hitler. As novelist George Steiner expressed it: 'Any man can say Auschwitz, and if he says it long enough, everyone has to cast his eyes down and listen. It is like smashing a glass in the middle of the room.'

"I cannot tolerate Israeli's turning me and others of my viewpoint into second-class citizens in our own country. For today, whether we like it or not, our relations to the State of Israeli are different from that of Christian Americans...In order to retain our religious affiliation, whether we like it or not, we must help, give, lend, assist the foreign State of Israeli in a manner in which other Americans, non-Jewish citizens do not have to do." (This of course excludes the fundamentalists, who are under God's curse, according to Jerry Falwell, if they don't send their hard earned money to his CHRISTIANS FOR ISRAELI and the support of the anti-Christ.

Then Lilienthal says something I wish more American Christians could honestly say: "I refuse to be a hyphenated American. I am neither an American-Jew nor a Jewish-American, but an American of Jewish faith. Israeli's flag is not, has not, and never will be mine!" I can admire such a man!

* * * * *

From Page four of the October 1983 issue of THE UPRIGHT OSTRICH, we have this gem: "The responsibility of at least 95% of all wars lies on the heads of those who control the banking establishment. The direct link between the money powers and U.S. military imperialism was acknowledged as far back as 1933 by Major-General Smedley Butler.

Butler had fought in wars on three continents. As a U.S. Marine commander he had been dispatched to practically every corner of the world "to restore order," when the interests of the money powers were threatened. He had been decorated with two Congressional Medals of Honor and many other distinctions. Speaking at an Armistice Day celebration in Philadelphia, he told his audience: "War is just a racket! A racket, is best described, I believe, as something that is not what it seems to the majority of the people. Only a small inside group knows what it is about. It is conducted for the benefit of the very few at the expense of the masses.

"I believe in adequate defense at the coastline and nothing else. If a nation comes over here to fight, then we will fight. The trouble with America is that when the dollar earns 6% over here, then it gets restless and goes overseas for 100%. Then the flag follows the dollar and soldiers follow the flag. All this military activity is done to defend some lousy investment of the bankers. There are only two things Americans should fight for. One is defense of our homes and the other is the Bill of Rights. War for any other cause is simply a racket.

"There isn't a trick in the racketeering bag that the military gang is blind to. It has its finger men to point out enemies; its muscle men to destroy its enemies; its brain guys to plan war preparations; and a Big Boss - International capitalism.

"It may seem odd for me, a military man, to use such a comparison. Truthfulness compels me to do so. I have spent 33 years and 4 months in active military service as a member of our country's most agile military force - the Marine Corps. I have served in all commissioned ranks from second lieutenant to major-general. During that period, I spent most of my time being a high muscle man for big business, for Wall Street, and for the bankers. In short, I was a racketeer, a gangster for monopoly capitalism.

"I suspected I was just a part of a racket at the time. Now I am sure of it. Like all members of the military profession, I never had an original thought until I left the service. My mental faculties remained in suspended animation while I obeyed the orders of the higher-ups. This is typical with everyone in the military service.

"I helped make Mexico - especially Tampico - safe for the American oil interests in 1914. I helped make Haiti and Cuba decent places for the National City Bank boys to collect their revenues in. I helped in the raping of half a dozen Central American republics for the benefit of Wall Street. My record of racketeering is long. I helped purify Nicaragua for the international banking house of Brown Brothers in 1909-1912. I brought light to the Dominican Republic for American Sugar interests in 1916. In China, in 1926, I helped see that Standard Oil went its unmolested way.

"During those years, I had, as the boys in the back room would say, a swell racket. I was rewarded with honors, medals, and promotions. Looking back on it, I feel as though I might have given Al Capone a few hints. The best he could do was operate in three districts, I operated on three continents."

What an indictment, but so very true. There has not been a war fought since that of 1812, which has been for America's interests. While my experience has not been as broad reaching as that of General Butler, it took me to three continents and I too was an unwitting tool of International Jewish bankers. Our war in Europe and Japan in 1941 was not for the protection of Democracy, as we were told at that time by a lying President. It was to kill off additional Christians, lay the ground work for Jewish-Communist one-world takeover, and line the pockets of the International Jewish bankers with the wealth of the Free World. The same was true in Korea, Vietnam, and now in Lebanon and Central America.

We hear so much today, and have down through the decades since World War II, about how our government has been anti-Communist. If this is true, why is it, that on every occasion, when the Soviet economy was on the verge of collapse, it has been good old Uncle Sam, using the money squeezed from the pockets of the American "sucker," that has kept them alive? Could it be that we are seeing the fulfillment of a prophecy made in 1869 by Jewish Rabbi Reichhorn, when speaking in The Prague, he said: "Thanks to the terrible power of our International Bankers, we have forced the Christians into wars without number. Wars have a special value for us Jews, since Christians massacre each other and this is good for Jews. WARS ARE THE JEWS HARVESTS! The Jew banks grow fat on Christian wars. Nearly 100-million Christians have been swept off the face of the earth by war, and the end is not yet!" (Remember, this statement was made over a 100 years ago, before the holocausts of World War I, II, Korea, and Vietnam.

During the Vietnam War, American trade with the Soviet Union was called "peaceful trade" by our State Department. I call it treason, according to the Constitutional definition of Article III, section 3. Here in words that any fifth grader can understand is this definition: "Treason shall consist only; in levying war against them; adhering to their enemies; giving them aid and comfort." If what we have done for the Soviet Union and are now attempting to do for Communist China, does not come under the heading of "giving aid and comfort to our enemies," then I fail to understand the meaning of the English language.

Yet while our people continue to be "raped" by an alien, anti-American government in Washington (it doesn't matter whether the administration is Republican or Democrat, for they are both controlled by the same money interests), most Americans are more interested in the outcome of the Super Bowl game, than in what takes place in Washington; while our church people, who are supposed to be the "salt of the earth," which holds back corruption, are told that our enemies are the Chosen of God. No wonder we are in trouble!

"When F.D.R. turned the nations of Europe over to the tender mercies of Stalin, do you believe this happened by accident? When National China was betrayed into the hands of Mao Tse Tung by General George Marshall in 1948, do you think this happened by accident? When President Eisenhower refused to answer the pleas of the Hungarian freedom fighters in 1956, after winning the American presidential election with his promise to do away with the Iron Curtain, do you think this happened by accident?

Was our first "no-win" war in Korea fought by accident? Was General Mac Arthur fired because he wanted to win this war, or was it an accident? Was our second "no-win" war in Vietnam a political fiasco, or was it planned that way by the Internationalists who supplied both sides with war materials, as they have done in every American war in recent history?

Was Secretary of Navy, James Forrestal right when he stated: "Consistency has never been a sign of stupidity. If the State Department were merely stupid, they would occasionally make a mistake in our favor." Did he pay with his life for this attitude? Are we being "set up" for an even bigger con game in the Middle East? It sure looks like it. If your sons are sent to die in Lebanon, remember that it was your preacher who caused you to believe this was right; after all they are God's Chosen, you know, ala Falwell. In God's name Christians, when will you wake up? Must you see your sons murdered for International banking interests and your country devastated, before you will wake up and think for yourself? Are you going to wait until God Almighty rubs your proud nose in the dirt and you have become a Jewish-Communist slave? Will it take a "blood bath" before you wake up and stand up!

In Destiny EDITORIAL SPECIAL ALERT NO. 48, dated December 1983, Dr. Howard Rand, the venerable patriarch of Identity stated: "Earth tremors are generating a fear of a coming life-threatening catastrophe, with no community assured of immunity from disastrous results which will follow a major earthquake shock. As reported in the US NEWS AND WORLD REPORT for November 14, 1983: 'Every year, earthquakes around the world kill between 10,000 and 15,000 persons and inflict an average of seven billion dollars worth of damage.' The question is: 'Is a killer earthquake due to hit the U.S.?' According to the Scriptures the answer is: "Yes! and the whole world will suffer."

Already we have seen killer quakes in 1983 which have devastated small towns in Idaho and California and have killed thousands in Turkey, the Philippines and Japan; while tremors have been felt in Alaska and Maine.

But have you read your Bible lately (suggested reading Isaiah 13:9; Isaiah 13:11-13; Ezekiel 38:18-20; Jeremiah 4:23-26; Revelation 14:14-16; Matthew 24:30-31; Revelation 6:4, 16, 17; 11:13; 16:19, 20; Are you ready for this to happen? Or are you one of those who have been hoodwinked by the Judaist teaching of the Rapture and believe Jesus will rescue you out of this old world before these bad days come. If you believe this; then you haven't studied your Bible very well. Especially the words of our Lord in Luke 21 and Matthew 24. He wasn't speaking to Jews here, He was warning Christians of what would happen before His return and He never breathed a word of a RAPTURE. Where did you get this idea? It doesn't come from an honest study of Scripture. What a shock the coming times will be for you "foxhole Christians" who are hiding in your comfortable, air-conditioned spiritual foxholes, waiting for Christ to come back and rescue you. Could it be that when He comes back, you might be one of those to whom He says: "Not everyone that saith unto me, Lord, Lord, will enter into the kingdom of heaven; but he that doeth the will of my Father which is in heaven". (Matthew 7:21)

Recently a little 24-page, 3x5" comic book has been printed by Chick Publications. On the front cover is a Star of David and big headlines which state: SUPPORT YOUR LOCAL JEW! Not only do these vermin want to destroy the white Christian civilization which has given you everything worthwhile, but they want to get you "dumb goyim" to finance it!

The following description of this pamphlet is given by Christian Patriot, L. Lee Layton, Jr., Dover, Delaware. I like it! "On the inside page is a picture of wonderful buildings which had been erected by Egyptians. The pyramids were depicted with laudatory comments. The Egyptians are the race which started civilization as we know it. Under them, geometry and astronomy were given a start. But Egypt's decline is described in this booklet. It says: "Egypt made one big mistake, it did not support her local Jew."

Then it goes on by stating that Babylon, Persia, and Alexander the Great persecuted the Jews and, as a result, each empire crumbled. (Of course this is an outright lie, since Assyria, Babylon, Persia and Greece were pre-eminent in their areas until the Jews arrived and caused their moral decay. They weren't called Jews in those days.)

On another page is a statement that mighty Rome ruled the world, but the Jews were mistreated under their mighty fist. (But history contradicts this Jewish lie also. For example, Julius Caesar conquered Gaul. But in order to do this, he needed money and who do you suppose he got it from? The International Jewish bankers of his day and when he did, he came under their control, just as most of our politicians have in modern days. When Brutus and Cassius killed Caesar, most people don't know that they were true patriots; for you see Jews write the history books too.)

On another page is a picture of Adolph Hitler with the statement that he murdered six million Jews. This is known as the "Holocaust Myth." It has been proven to be an absolute impossibility, since there weren't even one tenth that many Jews in German controlled territory. But the Jews don't want Christians to investigate the "holocaust;" they have too much to loose, money wise, if the "dumb goyim" ever wise up. In Germany, if you state disbelief in this Jewish fairytale, you can be put in jail. That's true Jewish democracy in action!

Then there is a page with pictures of starving Africans, all brought about because they have broken diplomatic relations with Israeli. Nothing about their exploitation by the International Jewish gangsters, which has brought them into poverty.

Then to top off this whole fantasy, Chick says: "Israeli's (meaning the present people we call Jews) Messiah is known in the New Testament as the Lord Jesus Christ." (This is about as blasphemous a bunch of garbage as can be imagined, since world Jewry has hated Jesus Christ and Christianity, ever since they murdered Him on Mt. Calvary.

But why Christians can't see through the next statement is beyond me: Chick then quotes John 14:6 - "No man cometh unto the Father, but by me (Jesus)." Yet he fools millions of gullible Christians, just like Falwell, Swaggart, Robertson and the other electronic evangelists do, into pouring millions of dollars of the Lord's tithe money, into a false and fake Chosen People.

The theme of this book is that in order for the United States to prosper, we must be loyal to the Israeli. This is the same "hogwash" put out by Jerry Falwell. Yet a little honest study of contemporary American history will show you that God has not blessed America since we recognized the Israeli State in 1947. Instead it has been the time of America's greatest decline in every field of endeavor; morally, spiritually, economically, politically, and militarily. Could it be that we are seeing the truth of 2 Chron. 19:2 in operation: "...Shouldest thou help the ungodly, and love them that hate the Lord; therefore is wrath upon thee from before the Lord."

But the Chosen People myth is screamed so loudly by the Jews and their "stooges," that they are getting by with it. SUPPORT YOUR LOCAL JEW, merely shows the contempt these people have for the intelligence of the white race. If you believe this rot, you will believe anything!

The following information comes directly from the UNITED NATIONS, SIGNED by Lottie Robbine, Chief Public Inquiries Unit, Department of Public Information, dated 8 November 1983:

"By agreement among the five permanent members of the Security Council, it has been the custom to appoint a citizen of each of these countries to one of the major Under Secretary posts of the Secretariat. The five Permanent Members of the Security Council are: China, France, United Kingdom, United States, and the Union of Soviet Socialist Republics. Under the above agreement, the position of Under-Secretary-General for Political and Security Council Affairs (the military control of U.N. Forces) has usually been held by a USSR national. (Figure this out if you can.) This post has been held as follows:

- 1946-1949 - Arkady Sobolev (USSR)
- 1950-1953 - Constantin Zinchenko (USSR)
- 1953-1954 - Ilya Tchernychev (USSR)
- 1954-1957 - Dragoslav Protich (Yugoslavia)
- 1958-1960 - Anatoly Dobrynin (USSR)
- 1960-1962 - Georgy Arkadev (USSR)
- 1962-1963 - E. E. Kiselev (USSR)
- 1963-1965 - V. P. Suslov (USSR)
- 1965-1968 - A. E. Nesterenko (USSR)
- 1968-1973 - Leonid N. Kutakov (USSR)
- 1973-1978 - Arkady N. Shevchenko (USSR)
- 1978-1981 - Mikhail Dmitrievich Sytenko (USSR)
- 1981-date - Viacheslav A. Tstinov (USSR)

Then ask yourself why? With our nation's forces under United Nations control, we have lost two wars with the communist world.

When KAL Flight 007 was shot down in September and 269 people, including 61 Americans were ruthlessly murdered, including a U.S. Congressman, there was an immediate outcry from the American people for retaliation. Among the more rational demands was that all grain shipments to the USSR be stopped immediately. But according to the controlled news media, the cancellation of grain shipments would have "hurt Americans more than the Russians." Did this protest come from American farmer, as they would have us believe, or did it come from the Multinational Merchants of Grain, who did not want the shipments halted? Lenin once said: "Grain is the currency of currencies." He was correct and the five multinational corporations which control this grain trade, said: "There will be no boycott of grain."

The next rational demand of the people was that we impose strict economic sanctions on the Soviet Union and stop all aid and trade with them. But again, the orders came, not from the people of the United States, but from the Megabankers and the Multinationals who trade with the Communist countries. The Communist countries owe these Big Banks (Jewish owned) over $80-billion. If they were to default on these loans, we are warned, the whole American Banking System would crumble. Or at least so say the Rockefeller banking interests: "We have a vested financial interest in preventing the collapse of international communism." This would have been the true reason.

It is a proven fact, that the Zionist controlled

Trilateralists and Megabankers, and certain Multinational Corporations do have a vested interest in keep Communism alive and well, even if it means taking money out of the pockets of the "long suffering" American taxpayer. So once again, "Mr. and Mrs. American Sucker," you are bailing out the International Zionist-Communists. This sort of reminds me of a cartoon I saw recently. It showed the President of the United States (and it could have been one from either party) as he was approached by his secretary: "Mr. President," he said, "the Pope and Mr. Begin are waiting to see you. Which one do you want to see first?" To which the President of the United States replied: "Send in the Pope. At least with him, the only thing I will have to kiss is his ring." Crude? Maybe. But eminently true!

In October I attended a wonderful Conference in Calgary, Alberta, Canada. It was the first Crown Commonwealth Conference of the League of Rights. There were representatives from Australia, New Zealand, South Africa, Rhodesia (I still call it Rhodesia), England, Ireland, Kenya, Canada and the United States; about 450 of them. In spite of intense pressure from the ADL - JDL hoodlums, the meeting was held. These English speaking nations make up the bulk of the Israel nations we sometimes call Christendom and we heard speeches from some of the finest Christian patriotic leaders in these nations. I would estimate that 90% of the delegates were Identity Christians, which means that they had an added perspective on the problems which are plaguing us. It was also interesting to note that the problems from all these countries were essentially the same and that they came from the same source, International Judaism.

It was my privilege to address one of these meetings, where I spoke on THE BRAINWASHING OF CHRISTENDOM. Copies of this speech are available for 50¢ each postpaid; $40.00 per 100. On Sunday, October 30, I sat in as an invited guest on a committee which drew up a policy statement for the Conference. It was the first meeting of Identity people from various countries that I had attended. I was impressed by the fact, that in spite of the differences in national policies, there was none of the bickering I have seen all too often among American Identity people. It was a meeting of Christian harmony, for a universal purpose of protecting our white Christian civilization. It reinforced my belief, that if our Identity people would spend as much time attacking the enemy, as they waste in "in-fighting" with their Christian brethren, we could make great headway in our battle for righteousness and survival.

I came across this information in THE CATHOLIC COUNTER-REFORMATION in the XX CENTURY, newsletter, for May 1982, published in Morden, Surry, England. It may explain in part why so many Maryknoll missionaries and Jesuit priests of the Catholic church are getting into trouble in "right wing" countries in South and Central America. It tells the story of a young man, one Eduardo Pellecer who entered the Society of Jesus at the age of twenty-one and after ten years of study was ordained a priest in 1976. He became at the instigation of his Order, a revolutionary agitator in El Salvador, Nicaragua and finally in his own country of Guatemala. Before he joined the guerilla forces, his eyes were opened to the truth and he escaped. His superiors made him into a martyr and released a public statement that he had been murdered by a "right wing murder squad." That was in June 1981. But in September that year, he reappeared in public and made a confession of his misdeeds. His story shows how the Jesuit order has drifted away from the Gospel of Jesus Christ and from the Catholic religion, to become a Marxist-Leninist member of armed revolution.

He states that the situation in the Catholic Church began to change with the Second Vatican Council (October 11, 1962 - December 8, 1965). He stated that from 1962, when the Catholic Church was the church of law, it changed to become a Church of Dialogue. Before this Council, it was considered that there was no salvation outside of the people of God (Christians). But the new doctrine has modified the meaning of the Church, where people can find salvation through social means, without ever knowing God. The Episcopal Conference of the Latin American Church in Medellin, Columbia in 1968, began to put into effect a proposition of Vatican II, that the only way to save poor people, who had been oppressed by right wing governments, was to "liberate them." (How can you liberate anyone by giving them Communism is beyond me.)

Father Pellecar states: "The Society of Jesus are guilty of having conspired from the centre of subversion: firstly from the point of view of faith through a preaching destined to pervert minds with a 'liberation theology;' then by supporting, both directly and indirectly, the revolutionary movement. Although all Jesuits in Guatemala do not belong to the "Guerilla Army of the Poor," the Society of Jesuits has provided the organization with its best elements. In order to spread the "new dimensions of Christian humanism," in Latin America, links were forged with the CONFREGUA (Confederations of Religious of Guatemala), with the Maryknoll Congregation, with Dominicans of Panama, the Salesians of Nicaragua, with Belgian of Holy Family College and with other religious orders which had been won over to Liberation Theology." There desire is to set up a new earthly Kingdom of Jesus, based on socialism." Maybe this will help explain the action of some Catholics in Central America.

From conservative columnist Tom Anderson, via THE MOUNTAIN LAKE SHOPPER of Andrews, North Carolina, comes this highly significant letter addressed to GENERAL BENEDICT ARNOLD

General Delivery
Hell,

Dear General:

How in the devil have you been? You got a bum rap, General. It's a hell of a note, but what you did - helping the enemy - is now not treason but government, and Big Business Policy. Our Presidents, State Department,

Supreme Court, Congress and Multinational Corporations have been doing it for years.

"Naturally, so have our allies. Your crime was merely helping the Mother Country, England, our enemy. You and George Washington were once great friends. There's another Washington with us now, but our liberals are not mad at him. They help him all they can. His name is Fidel Castro, 'the George Washington of Cuba.'

In fact, General, we have several Washingtons around. Our former Secretary of State, Dean Rusk, who helped George Marshall depose of Chiang Kai-shek and install Mao Tse Tung. He once declared that Mao was China's George Washington. Rusk compared favorably the Chinese Revolution with the American one.

It's not what you did, Benny, but the way you did it. You took cash to give information to the enemy. That was being real square. Today, under the sponsorship of the State Department, government bureaucrats make the scene in the Communist world with all sorts of goodies, knowhow and comradeship...Today, people like you, regularly sell to the enemy, again and again, and again, but they don't move there.

We sell on credit to Poland, Hungary, Czechoslovakia, Russia, East Germany and other Russian satellites, radiation equipment; airborne navigational equipment; rolling mills; chemical plants; vacuum gauges; food; radio communications equipment; chemicals; electronic computers; relief maps of our coastline and technical data...

Up until Pearl Harbor, December 7, 1941, some of our big business men had been selling scrap iron to the Japanese. But, of course, we got most of that back, and even now it resides in the bones of our fighting men buried in the cemeteries and jungles of the world.

We made the Soviet Union the scourge of the world, General...We still ship them high-technical equipment, wheat, and countless other assets to help them conquer the world. But to offset that, we are now sending some of those things to Red China. They are at loggerheads about how to conquer us and which one of them is going to rule the world. True, they may go to war one day, over our graves.

"By today's standards, General, your a mini-traitor. Your main trouble was that your timing was bad and you didn't think big enough.

For some 30 years, before Reagan, our lying leaders told us "the Cold War is over." If the Cold War is over, then we lost it!

Article II, Section 4, of the U.S. Constitution says "civil officers of the United States shall be removed from office on impeachment for, and conviction of, TREASON...Treason involves 'giving aid and comfort to the enemy.'" So the question is: what is aid and comfort and who is the enemy?

I need some information, General. Dante said: "The hottest fires of hell are reserved for those, who in a period of moral crisis, maintain neutrality." Some of our top leaders and businessmen thus used to be qualified. But now they are no longer neutral; they're helping the enemy. What fires are reserved for them? Don't sweat it, but call me collect if the devil has issued an Executive Order on the subject."

It appears as this edition goes to press, that White Christians everywhere in America are coming under increasing attack by the forces of the anti-Christ. Their main objective seems to be the immediate destruction of Identity Christians.

A "sign of the times" can be seen in an article which appeared in the Dec. 2, 1983, COURIER DEMOCRAT, Russellville, AR., under the title MOON GETS MAINLINE CHURCH SUPPORT.

This article, written by Robert J. Wagman, Washington (NEA), states in part that Lawrence Tribe, a professor at Harvard University Law School and a leading expert in Constitutional Law, sees the recent tax-evasion conviction of the Rev. Sun Myung-Moon, Korean bred head of the Unification Church, as "the most significant threat to religious freedom in the U.S. in many decades."

The Moon case revolves around the court determining what is a valid use of religious funds. Tribe says that if a judge can determine what is the proper or improper use of church funds, then the church is at the mercy of the government or the IRS.

What we need to ask the courts is this. If this Rockefeller supported, CIA financed religious cult needs Constitutional protection from Big Brother, or no one will have religious freedom, then how come Christian Identity folks do not have the same "equality before the law." Could it be that the repressive beast of Big Brother tyranny in occupied America in 1984 has a motto: ALL RELIGIONS ARE EQUAL - BUT SOME ARE MORE EQUAL THAN OTHERS?

These thoughts are presented as the result of a letter I received in December from Pastor Ralph Forbes, of the GOOD NEWS MINISTRIES, SWORD OF CHRIST, in London, Arkansas. He states: "A federal court in Arkansas has declared Christian Identity is 'not religious in nature and is not entitled to the free exercise protection of the First Amendment.'"

The State of Arkansas boasted in court, that Pastor Forbe's testimony that "it was easier to smuggle a Bible behind the Iron Curtain, than get one into an Arkansas prison," was true! The court testified that the Identity message was banned in Arkansas prisons, because "they do not conform to established religions." While the radical Black Muslims are free to hold religious services in Arkansas prisons and distribute their hate literature, Identity Christians are on the verboten list. It appears, as Brother Forbes so clearly states, that unless you "conform to humanitarianism, sodomy, miscegenation (race mixing) and idolatry towards the anti-Christ, your religious rights are dead!"

While Congress has declared 1983 to be THE YEAR OF THE BIBLE, the forces of anti-Christ have been having a field day, keeping the Christian message from men in prison, who hunger for God's Word and who put themselves in great danger by asking for it.

If you would like to know more about this dangerous trend and possibly even help financially in the battle Ralph

Forbes in waging almost single-handedly, write to PASTOR RALPH FORBES, P.O. Box 88, London, Arkansas 72847.

For those of you fundamentalists and evangelicals who may read this paper, let me remind you that while you may now "snicker behind your hand" at the manner in which we Identity folks are being treated, if the State can deny our Constitutional rights, how long will it be before they take away yours? Or are you one of those "luke warm Christians" our Lord spoke about in Revelation 3:16, who will conform to anything which is approved by the State. What the Christian church needs more than anything in these days of subversion, are some "Shadrachs, Meshachs, and Abednegos, who will not bow down to the "idol of Gold," but will say as those men of old: "If so be that our God whom we serve is able to deliver us from the burning fiery furnace, and He will deliver us out of thine hand, O king. But if not, be it known unto thee, O king, that WE WILL NOT SERVE thy Gods, nor worship the image of gold which thou hast set up," (Daniel 3:17, 18).

Growing numbers of American Christians are becoming rightly aware that our government has become a "fearful master, rather than a dangerous servant." If this lower court order is allowed to stand, then White Christians, of any church, will have no religious rights.

As there was no room in the inn for the Christ, almost 2000 years ago, so it appears there is no room for Christ in America - according to the federal judges and bureaucrats, backed by their Zionist henchmen. As they have outlawed prayer and Bible reading in the public schools; the nativity scenes from before public buildings, so now they would destroy our Constitutional rights of "freedom of religion." Just as they recently hit Baptist oriented Bob Jones University on the "miscengination issue", so now they are seeking to destroy your right to worship God according to the dictates of your conscience. What will your answer be? If you lie down supinely and allow this to happen, then you deserve nothing but the slavery which will follow!

SECTION V — INTELLIGENCE REPORTS

Things are very quiet as this goes to print. It is almost like the "lull before the storm." While there are repeated reports of atomic devices implanted in our big cities, the people go blithely on their way, more interested in the outcome of the Super Bowl Game, than in whether they remain free! Terrorism is become a thing with which we must live and we have brought it upon ourselves by our own actions. We have no one to blame but ourselves. It will not go away until concerned Americans make the effort to stop it.

Reports from the Mexican-U.S. Border still mention violence and its potential in that area, while more reports of National Guard units being placed on alert and equipment being shipped off somewhere, are coming in all the time. By the time this letter reaches you, America could very well be at war. I hope and pray this will not happen; for if it does, I predict the greatest wave of terrorism to hit America, this world has ever seen.

Because of the CONTROVERSIAL NATURE of the material in this paper believe it is necessary for me to make the following statement. Almost without fail, someone will disagree with the facts of Scripture and history which I present. I respect your right to do this! I also welcome CONSTRUCTIVE CRITICISM! But I WILL NOT! Let me repeat - I WILL NOT ARGUE WITH ANYONE OVER WHAT I HAVE WRITTEN!

The materials I present are not sent to the printer until they have been painstakingly researched. Then after much prayer for Holy Spirit guidance, they are put into print. It is not my task to change your mind. I am only a humble watchman on the walls of Israel-America. My task is to warn you of the enemy. What you do with that warning is between you and God. I feel as Nehemiah must have felt in Neh. 6:3, when Sanballat and Tobiah wanted him to stop work on the defensive walls and hold dialogue with them. To paraphrase his words: "I am doing a great work, so that I have no time to waste: why should the work cease while I argue with you." So if you want to argue, with me, please do not expect a reply.

Because of the nature of my materials, it is natural that the enemy will attempt to strike back when I hurt them. As a result, there have been an increasing number of "anonymous" threats. They never have guts to sign their name, or give their address. A recent one, from a supposedly friendly source, stated that an assassination contract had been put out on my life for early 1984. While I am not losing any sleep over this, it would be foolish not to pay attention. I am taking added precautions. The reason I tell you this, is that if anything unusual should happen to me, I DID NOT COMMIT SUICIDE!!!

Since my 1948 Korean experience, I have placed my trust in Psalm 91:4-8 - "He shall cover thee with His feathers, and under His wings shalt thou trust: His truth shall be thy shield and buckler. Thou shalt not be afraid for the terror by night: nor for the arrow which flieth by day; nor for the pestilence that walketh in darkness; nor for the destruction that wasteth at noonday. A thousand shall fall by thy side, and ten thousand at thy right hand; but it shall not come nigh thee. Only with thine eyes shalt thou behold the reward of the wicked." I believe this with all my heart! If the Lord wills it, I intend to sit in on the TREASON trials as a witness for the prosecution.

It is interesting to note that leading members of the Jewish Masonic Lodge, the B'nai B'rith arrived recently in West Germany as guests of the West German Government. Their main aim, during their two weeks, fully paid trip, was to familiarize Germans with this Jewish organization and assure better cooperation between German and American Jewish organizations. Could their next step be the creation of a German ADL? It is already an offense, punishable with a prison sentence, for any West German to openly criticize the Jews, whether rightly or wrongly.

The Jewish lobby in Washington has managed to accomplish the nearly impossible: It has made the total power and production capacity of the United States subservient to Israeli aims.

In November 1983, a young man with a home made bomb under his shirt was arrested in the Capitol after threatening to blow up the House Chamber. The bomb was real, but incorrectly wired. How many of you know that this fellow was an "Israeli?" Your media services never told you that did they? Supposing he had been an Arab or a Syrian tourist. What do you think they would have said then?
